

2011-2012 FEES

Welcome to St. Joseph Catholic School. We the community of St. Joseph Catholic School use Christ as our model in acknowledging our Catholic beliefs. Parents are the primary educators of their children. Parents have a moral responsibility to attend weekend Mass, celebrate the Sacraments on a regular basis and are expected to be active in the spiritual development of their children. Parents have a serious responsibility to support the parish with their time, talents and treasure.

No child will be denied a Catholic education because the family has financial constraints. Please contact the pastor for further information if your family can not actively, financially support the parish.

The cost to educate one student at SJS is approximately $4,200.00 (revised: 4-2009)

Weekly Offertory: Make donations payable to: St. Joseph Catholic Church

(Revised: 02-2008)

- Parish families (Grades K – 8) are expected to fulfill the terms of their covenant through the offertory collection. Parents, as well as all parishioners, are requested to prayerfully consider a 5% tithe to the support of the church.
  - If you attend Mass in another parish, please feel free to send your weekly obligation with your school children and/or mail.
  - Please note: $35 does not cover the cost to educate a student - the parish subsidizes the remainder of the cost.
  - Kindergarten parents are reminded that their covenant begins in July prior to beginning school in August, earlier would be better.
- Monitoring of Covenant Agreements (based on July 2011 thru June 2012) will be through the parish office by the pastor. Quarterly reminders will be sent to the parents if needed. The pastor or principal may be contacted to change the terms of a covenant.
